

AP European History Syllabus, Bio, and Photo for Patti Harrold

Course Description:

Participants in this course will explore methodology and topical studies in AP European History.

If possible, participants should bring textbook used for their course

Week Plan:

Monday--

AP European History Course Basics

AP European History Exam

Tuesday--

AP Histories' Reading Strategies

AP Histories' Note-taking Strategies

Wednesday--

AP Histories' Discussion Strategies

AP Histories' Multiple-Choice Strategies

Thursday--

AP Histories' Writing Strategies

Review of 2019 AP European History Exam

AP European History Course Planning

Patti Harrold Biography:

Patti Harrold taught for 42 years and was, at her retirement, social studies department chair at Edmond Memorial High School in Edmond, Oklahoma, where she taught AP European History, AP World History, AP Art History, AP U.S. History, and AP German. She also, most recently, worked for College Board where she was in charge of instructional design for AP European, AP World, and AP US histories, and the Lead for AP Art History. Patti is currently an AP Reader for European History and a College Board consultant through which, for 27 years, she has presented at more than 100 College Board and AP workshops and week-long institutes. She has written and edited many AP History publications, both for College Board and independent publishers. She received the College Board's Southwestern Region AP Special Recognition Award and the 2004 Secondary Teacher of the Year Award from the National Council for the Social Studies. Ms. Harrold holds a BA from Oklahoma City University and an MS from Lamar University.

